

PCI Media Multimedia Communications Intern (Unpaid)

PCI Media Impact seeks an undergraduate student, graduate student, or recent graduate interested in supporting our multimedia efforts. Successful candidates will be creative and passionate, with strong video editing, motion graphics, and Microsoft PowerPoint skills. We expect interns to join us for at least three months, and work three to four days a week.

If you have an interest in gaining experience in communications for change throughout the world, are comfortable working in a multi-cultural environment, and have a knack for keeping organized, then you might be a great fit for PCI Media's Communication Intern.

About PCI Media Impact

PCI Media is an award-winning, non-profit organization that produces culturally resonant television and radio programs and communication campaigns, in partnership with local and international organizations, to achieve national, regional and global impact.

At the heart of our work are compelling narratives that celebrate the positive and reflect our "Love Not Loss" approach to tackling difficult issues. We are a leader in the field of Social and Behavioral Change Communication (SBCC); the strategic use of communication to promote positive outcomes in health, environment, and social justice. Grounded in social science and communication theory, we employ a systematic, participatory process that utilizes television, radio, video, print, social media, interpersonal channels, and community mobilization to achieve defined objectives at the community, national and regional levels.

Together with our partners around the world, we have produced more than 5,000 episodes of 100 television and radio productions, reaching more than one billion people in over 60 countries.

Job Description

PCI Media Impact seeks a Multimedia Communications Intern for a three to four-month internship, to support our communications activities.

The selected candidate will work closely with our staff to develop both video and digital communications materials, supporting our Creative Communications & Production Manager to keep our promotional materials fresh and dynamic. This is an excellent opportunity for an individual with solid video editing, motion graphics, Microsoft PowerPoint and graphic design abilities to gain hands-on experience with an international communications NGO at the forefront of social change communications.

Specifically, you may be involved in each of the following areas and tasks:

- Support Video Production
- Graphic Design
- Podcast/Vlog Development
- Internal and External PowerPoint Creation
- Animation

Qualifications

- Adobe After Effects experience
- Experience in film editing applications, such as Adobe Premiere or Final Cut
- Strong Microsoft PowerPoint capabilities
- Ability to work both with an international team and independently
- Can manage multiple simultaneous assignments
- Good organizational skills

How To Apply

Along with a resume, please send a cover letter that explains why you are interested in PCI Media, what you consider important communications principles and any experience you have with video, motion graphics, and Microsoft PowerPoint. Please attach two video editing and/or motion graphics samples. Finally, tell us about the time frame when you would be available for an internship. We will conduct interviews on a rolling basis, as we receive applications. Please send your application to mrodriguez@pcimedia.org with "Multimedia Communications Intern" in the subject line. We will confirm receipt of your submission.
