

PCI Media Programs intern (Unpaid)

PCI Media is looking for candidates interested in joining our internship program and supporting our global communication programs for social change and development around the world. We are looking for individuals who are creative, passionate, good writers, and that love to be part of a multi-cultural and international team. We expect interns to join us for at least three months and work an average of four days a week.

If you are interested in gaining experience in communications for change throughout the world, are comfortable working in a multi-cultural environment, have a knack for being organized, can easily respond to a wide variety of needs and opportunities, and if you are well versed in Microsoft Office Suite, then you might be a great fit for PCI Media's Programs Intern.

About PCI Media Impact

PCI Media is an award-winning, non-profit organization that produces culturally resonant television and radio programs and communication campaigns, in partnership with local and international organizations, to achieve national, regional and global impact.

At the heart of our work are compelling narratives that celebrate the positive and reflect our "Love Not Loss" approach to tackling difficult issues. We are a leader in the field of Social and Behavioral Change Communication (SBCC); the strategic use of communication to promote positive outcomes in health, environment, and social justice. Grounded in social science and communication theory, we employ a systematic, participatory process that utilizes television, radio, video, print, social media, interpersonal channels, and community mobilization to achieve defined objectives at the community, national and regional levels.

Together with our partners around the world, we have produced more than 5,000 episodes of 100 television and radio productions, reaching more than one billion people in over 60 countries.
